

Fifth Grade Suggested Summer Reading List

Welcome to East Middle School ELA! As you know, reading is an important part of education and progress should be maintained throughout the summer months. Please take some time to review this list with your child and visit the library or bookstore over the summer and enjoy a few of these titles, or others of your choosing! These titles are not required, nor is there a required number of books that needs to be read. These are suggestions for books that may enrich your summer reading.
