

Recognizing and Responding to Trauma-Based Behaviors in Children

Please join Parent Network, CAFFA, and Mental Health Advocates in hosting trauma therapists Marcella Moslow and Amy Wilkerson for this unique event.

At this workshop, you will learn:

- What encompasses trauma
- How trauma impacts the brain, body and behavior across environments
- Behaviors as communication
- Trauma reactions/protective system
- Ways to Help sensory grounding/ soothing, coregulation, repair after rupture
- Types of resources to explore

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14

10 am - 12 pm

IN PERSON EVENT

1021 Broadway Street
Buffalo, NY 14212

REGISTER FOR FREE

www.parentnetworkwny.org/events

For more information

716.332.4170 or info@parentnetworkwny.org

Childcare available.

Please contact Parent Network for more information.
If using childcare, please plan to arrive at 9:30 am.
Light refreshments served.

SPONSORED BY

CAFFA
Coalition of Adoption &
Foster Family Agencies

MHA
Mental Health Advocates
Be Heard. Be Helped.

Office for People With Developmental Disabilities

Marcella Moslow, LCSW, RPT

Marcella is a transracial and transnational adoptee from Colombia, as well as a certified trauma therapist with a private practice in Buffalo, NY. She is also a trainer, consultant, educator and co-host of the podcast Adoptees Dish.

Amy Wilkerson, LCSW

Amy Wilkerson is a transracial and international adoptee and is a licensed clinical social worker in private practice specializing in the complexities of adoption, and a co-host of the podcast, Adoptees Dish. In 2021, Amy wrote the children's book, "Being Adopted," for adopted children to feel normalized and seen in their experiences.