

General Information for Home School Instruction

*Disclaimer: This guide was prepared by Janell Hallgren, of the Erie I BOCES Home School Monitoring Service. It is based on Commissioner's regulations Part 100.10, however, it is not meant to be the rendering of legal advice.
Developed: May 2017*

Notice of Intent to Home School

Although not required, the District will send a reminder and request for the Notice of Intent to Home School form to the current home schooling families (ideally by June 1st). Parents or other persons in parental relation to a student of compulsory school attendance age must provide annual written notice to the Superintendent of Schools of their district of residence of their intention to educate their child or children at home by July 1st of each school year. This notice may be provided to the District in a letter format or on a District provided form.

Within 10 business days of the receipt of the Notice of Intent, the District must send a copy of Commissioner's regulations Part 100.10, suggested Quarterly Report submission dates, and sample IHIP forms. General Information for Home School Instruction (this guide) may also be provided to the parents.

IHIP (Individualized Home Instruction Plan)

Within four weeks of receiving the materials listed above from the District, or by August 15th, whichever is later, the parent must submit the completed IHIP to the District. The District may provide general assistance with the forms, if requested by the parents. Within 10 business days of receipt of the IHIP, the school District will either notify the parent that the IHIP complies with the requirements of the regulations or give the parents written notice of any deficiencies in the IHIP. The IHIP may be submitted to the District on sample forms as provided by the District, or in another format as developed by the parents or instructors.

Since this District is working in conjunction with the Home School Monitoring Service through Erie I BOCES, there may be a slight delay with this timeline, as the District will typically wait until all of the IHIPs have been received and then have the IHIPs reviewed as a group by the Home Schooling Monitoring Auditor. If you have any concerns or wish to have your IHIP reviewed immediately, please contact the District.

Regardless of what format or form is used, each child's IHIP must include:

- The child's name, age, and grade level;
- A list of the syllabi, curriculum materials, textbooks, or plan of instruction to be used in each of the required subjects;
- The dates that each quarterly report will be submitted. These reports should be spaced in even and logical periods. The District will offer suggested dates to follow based on the 40 week school District calendar;
- The names of each individual who is providing education for the student;
- If student will be attending a degree institution to meet the compulsory educational requirements of Education Law, then the following must also be included: the name of the degree-granting institution; subjects to be covered, and a statement indicating that the student is enrolled for at least 12 semester hours.

Quarterly Reports

On, or before the dates specified by the parent in the IHIP, a Quarterly Report for each child will be submitted to the District. The Quarterly Reports may be submitted to the District on sample forms as provided by the District, or in another format as developed by the parents or instructors. After the Quarterly Report is reviewed by the Audit, you will receive notification that the report is either in compliance or if additional information is needed.

Regardless of what format or form is used, the Quarterly Report must include:

1. The number of hours of instruction during each quarter.
 - The actual number of hours of instruction for the quarter or by each subject must be provided.
 - The report cannot simply state that the required number of hours were completed. See the charts below for further information on the required hours of instruction.
2. A description of the material covered for each subject listed in the IHIP.
 - In place of the description, you may provide copies of the table of contents of the textbooks used, highlighting the chapters covered for that quarter.
 - If you child is enrolled in an online program, you may provide a computer printout if it clearly shows what material was covered for the quarter.
3. A grade for each subject or a written narrative evaluating the student's progress.
 - An evaluation must assess the level of achievement obtained by the student. It cannot simply state that lessons were completed.
 - You may use numeric grades, letter grades, or a scale such as: above average, satisfactory progress, or needs improvement, etc.
4. A written explanation if less than 80% of the material planned for that quarter has been covered.

A Special Note Regarding the Calculating of Hours vs. Units in Grades 7-12

Per Commissioner's regulations, a unit is defined as 6,480 minutes or 108 hours of instruction per year. However, Commissioner's regulations also state that the cumulative hours of instruction for grades 7-12 is 990 hours. Therefore, you must teach more than the number of hours as defined by a unit. The combination of hours may vary according to your curriculum, but the total number of hours must equal a minimum of 990 hours per year.

After the first two years, students will either have to increase English and Social Studies to 400 hours per year, continue in Math and/or Science at 200 hours per year, add electives, or some combination to fulfill the hourly requirements. After the one unit of art or music is completed, students may continue with art or music as electives, or may chose other electives, such as foreign languages, religion, home and career courses, technology or computer courses, theater programs, internships, community service, etc.
